

SUMMARY FOR PUBLICATION

Ordinance No. 2689-25

Ordinance Amending Various Sections of Chapter 2 and Article IV of the St. Louis Park City Code Related to Boards and Commissions

This ordinance amends various sections of Chapter 2 and Article IV of the St. Louis Park City Code related to boards and commissions. The amendments include changes to the Power and Duties, Membership; Terms, Stipends, and Expenses of members. The changes include implementing term limits for board and commission members to ensure consistent opportunities for interested residents, introducing stipends to reduce barriers to participation, and removing the specified date for annual report submission to the council. Additionally, it amends term expiration dates for planning commission members, board of zoning appeal members, police advisory commission members, and environment and sustainability members to align with other boards and commissions governed by Chapter 2. Lastly, it changes the name of the Environment and Sustainability Commission to enhance its relevance. These amendments aim to improve the effectiveness and inclusivity of the boards and commissions.

The ordinance shall take effect June 1, 2025.
